In the field

While fund-raising efforts continue in hopes of improving country coverage, Round 7 surveys proceed on a limited basis:

- ✓ Fieldwork has been completed in Kenya, Benin, Côte d'Ivoire, Malawi, Uganda, Mali, and Zimbabwe
- ✓ Next up, in March/April, are Nigeria, Gabon, and Tanzania.

Enumerators in Benin are trained before they head for the farthest reaches of the country.

Support for Afrobarometer

Thanks to the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (SIDA), the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, the U.S. State Department, the National Endowment for Democracy, and the World Bank, Afrobarometer surveys will continue in 2017. But planned country coverage is still very limited, and Afrobarometer's longer-term survival remains uncertain. Voices of support for our work will continue to be essential.
