August 2021 highlights

In the field and around the network

✓ Fresh off its successful completion – despite a pandemic – of Round 8 data collection in 34 countries, AB is pivoting straight into Round 9. Fieldwork is planned in at least 35 countries in 2021/2022 with a questionnaire containing new modules on COVID-19, environmental governance, gender-based violence, social services, and responsive government, among others. Meanwhile, watch for our R8 Pan-Africa Profiles.

✓ AB launched a weekly “Data” series in the Continent, a newspaper written by journalists across Africa in partnership with the Mail & Guardian and distributed largely via WhatsApp.

In the news

A total of 662 media hits were recorded in August across various media outlets, including the Economist, Associated Press, SABC News, Daily Maverick, News Chant, Gabonews, International Business Times, MaliJet, Pulse.ng, Washington Post, Al Jazeera, Christian Science Monitor, Tagesschau, South African, ...

Support for Afrobarometer
Afrobarometer surveys are continuing in 2021 thanks to financial support from Sweden via the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency, the Mo Ibrahim Foundation, the Open Society Foundations, the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) via the U.S. Institute of Peace, Freedom House, the Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands in Uganda, Humanity United, the European Union Delegation to the African Union, and GIZ. Consistent funding will continue to be essential, however, to ensure Afrobarometer’s long-term sustainability.
